

Voter Guide

November
2026

California Statewide Measures

Prop. 1: Authorize $11.25 billion in bonds for affordable housing construction

YES

Prop. 2: Increase the amount of money California can save in its "rainy day fund"

YES

Prop. 3: Make a temporary tax on the wealthy permanent to fund California public schools

YES

Prop. 4: Allow public financing for candidates running for local elections

YES

Prop. 5: Reform the way California administers recall elections

YES

Prop. 37: Attempt to fix housing affordability by encouraging middle-class home buyers to take on second mortgages

NO

Prop. 38: Authorize $8.4 billion in bonds to fund a UCLA Immunology research center

NO

Prop. 39: Make it harder for US citizens to vote

NO

Prop. 40: Tax 200 billionaires once so millions of Californians can continue to have healthcare

YES

Prop. 41: Make it harder to tax 200 billionaires

NO

Prop. 42: Make it harder to tax 200 billionaires

NO

Prop. 43: Make it harder to raise money for emergency services and public infrastructure projects

NO

Prop. 44: Limit ways nonprofit community health clinics can spend money

NO

Prop. 45: Weaken the environmental review process for new development

NO

Voter Guide

Los Angeles County Measures

Meas. A: Establish a neutral arbitration process for public safety employee unions and the county

YES

Meas. E: Move Measure J to a new section of the charter so that it can't be repealed

YES

Los Angeles City Measures

Prop. TE: Exempt Palisades fire victims from Measure ULA

NO

Charter Amendment LA: Establish a Capital Infrastructure Plan

YES

Charter Amendment PL: Replace Area Planning Commissions with a Neighborhood Appeals Commission

NEUTRAL
POSITION

Charter Amendment EE: Strengthen the Inspector General's authority over LAPD audits

YES

Charter Amendment PRK: Increase the Department of Recreation and Parks budget

YES

Charter Amendment PRT: Streamline the governance of airports, ports, and water and energy departments

YES

Charter Amendment SC: Change rules for Board of Education elections

NO

Initiative Ordinance FD: Enact a half-cent (0.5%) sales tax increase to fund the L.A. Fire Department

NEUTRAL
POSITION

SAJE (Strategic Actions for a Just Economy) is a South Central Los Angeles community organization that fosters community power and leadership in pursuit of economic justice.

We present our positions on these state, county, and municipal measures and proposals with the goal of promoting a more just economy for all. Please note that, due to our status as a 501(c)(3) organization, we cannot endorse political candidates. Paid for by SAJE.